

MARCH 17, 2022, DINNER MEETING MINUTES

The meeting was held at Tuckers and was called to order by 1815 by President Wayne Watson who welcomed all members and guests. (30 attended)

The Invocation was given by Howard Jones and followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Wayne's opening remarks included an invitation to volunteer at M J Dolly Cooper Veterans Cemetery on Saturday, 8:30 am, March 19 to help spread mulch.

Wayne also asked if anyone was interested in handing out a JROTC Certificate at Seneca High School on March 26.

Howard Stammerjohn commented on his visit to the Wreaths Across America traveling van. Art Phillips followed up with additional comments.

Dinner was served. (Teriyaki salmon)

Wayne introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Jordan Doshier, former Army doctor who specialized in physical therapy for traumatic injuries. He served all over the world and spoke about modern-day treatments for those severely injured. Excellent, interesting presentation!

Name tags were collected, and Linda Wilson won the door prize.

Howard Jones gave the Benediction.

The meeting was adjourned by 2000.

Respectfully submitted,

Sharon Jacobs, Secretary
