Ft Jackson, SC

Secretary was absent so no report.

Treasurer report was read and accepted as presented.

Special thanks to Low Country for an excellent conference.

Bill Bethe gave report on military issues—Ft Jackson and retired pay.

Recognized 40th anniversary of the Keowee Chapter with a MOAA National certificate.

Passed the gavel from Dale Ellenberg to David Lobb, the new president.

The past president presented the 40th anniversary certificate to the incoming president.

NEW PRESIDENTS COMMENTS:

Need chapter roster inputs by Dec 31

LOE awards moved up to Mar 1

Urged more chapters and the council to apply to LOE

Legislative actions and introduced the new board

REPORTS FROM CHAPTERS:

AIKEN—Great Veterans day efforts Great speakers at chapter meetings

COLUMBIA—Will have 50th anniversary bash. Bill, Tom and Warren attended conference.

HILTON HEAD—Orlando meeting was fantastic. Advanced membership strategies Stress membership, bring former officers into MOAA. Had our Dec luncheon at the yacht club. Will have installation of officers on Jan 21.

KEOWEE—As always continue to have membership problems.

STAR FORT—Nov is a holiday month. Chapter is sponsoring an exhibit at the local library

PIEDMONT—They are trying to transport homeless vets to the Stand Down event in Spartanburg.

Motion to adjourn.
